

Eagle Mountain Ranch

Dear Sponsor,

My name is Kim McLaughlin and I currently own and operate Eagle Mountain Ranch located in Arlington, Washington. We have served the Arlington/Smokey Point area for over 11 years and specialize in raising and training Arabian horses. In addition to our breeding and training programs, we also have an active riding lesson program and have helped individuals of all ages reach their goals of better horsemanship and improved riding ability. We are pleased to say that many of our youth and amateur riders along with the horses in our training program participate in showing at the Regional level.

At Eagle Mountain Ranch, we believe it is important to reach out to the community. Therefore, throughout the summer we hold youth rider day camps, trail riding clinics and also have special days where we invite children's groups from the neighboring cities to the ranch for a day of fun amongst the horses.

In addition to these activities, Eagle Mountain Ranch also hosts a series of schooling "fun" shows, which are open to all riders, horse breeds and neighboring barns. These volunteer-run shows are held on the first Sunday of each month beginning in October and continue through May. These "fun" shows are designed to provide youth and amateur riders with a low key show environment where they can practice their riding skills and gain confidence. We generally have a large turnout of horses, riders and guests at each schooling show.

The community feedback we have received from the schooling shows has been overwhelmingly positive! We would very much like to continue providing this unique service to the community but are in need of financial assistance to keep the shows running. I would like to invite you to join Eagle Mountain Ranch with a sponsorship to help support our efforts. We have seasonal or day sponsorship options available. This is a great way to advertise your local business and also is tax deductible!

Option #1 SEASONAL SPONSORSHIP $150.00:

Includes displaying Company banner (supplied by sponsor) in large show arena at every show throughout the year. Also, a representative from your Company may set up a table for advertisement/sales on the show grounds.
